TRUE/FALSE

19. T F To be holy is to be morally blameless. Pg 17
20. T F We are more concerned about our own “victory” over sin than we are about the fact that our sins grieve the heart of God. Pg 17
21. T F We must face the fact that we have a personal responsibility for our walk of holiness. Pg 19
22. T F When God speaks to us about some sin, we need to heed and take action. Pg 35
23. T F Satan will attempt to use the Holy Spirit’s work to discourage us. Pg 41
24. T F One of Satan’s attacks is to try to convince you that you are not a genuine Christian after all. Pg 41
25. T F We must correct, mold, and train our moral character. Pg 84
26. T F Just as we must learn to bring the appetites of our bodies under control, so we must also learn to bring our thought lives under obedience to Jesus Christ. Pg 99
27. T F The cure for the sin of envy and jealousy is to find our contentment in God. Pg 103
28. T F A critical spirit has its root in pride. Pg 105
29. T F Our responsibility regarding our wills is to guard our minds and emotions, being aware of what influences our minds and stimulates our desires. Pg 112
30. T F Every sin we commit reinforces the habit of sinning and makes it easier to sin. Pg 113
31. T F The more we succeed in saying yes to our sinful desires, the easier it becomes to say no. pg 115
32. T F Only those who walk in holiness experience true joy. Pg 131
33. T F If we diligently guard our minds and emotions, we will see the Holy Spirit working in us to conform our wills to His own. Pg 109
