TRUE/FALSE

16. T F Integrity is the foundation on which your leadership will stand or fall.
17. T F Ultimately, our drive, our passion, to be visionary leaders should flow from a desire to emulate Jesus. Pg 42

18. T F A single uncontrolled character flaw can undermine your greatest accomplishments. Pg 86
 19. T F We must make up our minds to not serve God but serve our passion for pleasure, power, fame, and fortune. Pg 88

TRUE/FALSE

20. T F The evil man brings good things out of the evil stored up in him, and the good man brings evil things out of the good stored up in him. Pg 92
 21. T F When a leader is asked what leadership skill they find most difficult to master, men and women overwhelmingly identified the ability to inspire a shared vision as the hardest practice to learn. Pg 103
 22. T F Optimists believe that good will come out of even the worst of circumstances. Pg 108
 23. T F Jesus consistently led by demonstrating an optimistic view of failure. Pg 109
 24. T F Every time Jesus made a decision it was an expression of his core values: To love God and to love his neighbor. Pg 119
 25. T F Decisions driven by greed and a desire to acquire wealth will eventually lead to the abandonment of our core values. Pg 120
 26. T F Right decisions are right—whether they are popular or not. Pg 125
 27. T F You must be able to promote teamwork by blending the talents and strengths of individuals. Pg 129
 28. T F Me-ism says, “Me first. “It is the opposite of we-ism, which says, “Team first.” Pg 130
 29. T F The whole idea of a team flows from the very nature of God. The Father, Son, and Holy Spirit all work together in harmony. Pg 131
 30. T F A compelling vision does not have power to liberate us from me-ism and lead us to we-ism. Pg 132
