TRUE/FALSE

18. T F An area of our fallen human nature activated by being defiled can become a doorway to the demonic. Pg 27

19. T F Being effective in prayer with God hearing us and us hearing Him is the key to everything in life. Pg 27
20. T F According to the author, there is a solution to being exposed to evil vicariously and that is not to fight. Pg 45
21. T F It is important that every Christian cleanse their home or work place from anything that could be a source of defilement. Pg 55
22. T F When the death angel passed by, those living in the house where the blood had been applied were spared. Pg 59
23. T F Our love relationship with God is also expressed through our love for others. Pg 60
24. T F We can be locked in a particular way of thinking which can only be changed by real interaction with others. Pg 61
25. T F We cannot keep any deep dark secret in our life, any evil unexposed sin, for it will be like a cancer which can destroy us. Pg 65
26. T F We are children of light and as such we can no longer live in darkness or allow what is darkness to find any place in us. Pg 66
27. T F We know that due to our fallen nature, darkness tends to find easy access into our lives. Pg 66
28. T F As we confess the evil, it no longer has a hold on us. Pg 66
29. T F When we confess our sins we are free because the darkness “becomes light.” Pg 66
30. T F As we confess our faults we can experience true healing. Pg 67
31. T F Whatever is hidden Satan will use to manipulate your life with. Pg 68
32. T F Timing and sensitivity to the Holy Spirit’s prompting is important. Pg 69
33. T F There are those our confession can cause grief and damage to. Pg 69
34. T F Who we confess to is not important. Pg 67
35. T F Ego is always a major stumbling block for all of us. Pg 70
