TRUE/FALSE

17. T F God never forgets the worthy purpose He had and has for us. Pg 6
18. T F According to the author, most people who sin do so more from desperation than out of a conscious disobedience. Pg 10

19. T F Jesus Christ is God's message to man. Pg 35
20. T F He who has spoken creation into existence and sustains it in continuum, when He speaks a promise it can be believed. Pg 38
21. T F If He can sustain all creation, He'll see us through when He says He will. Pg 38
22. T F His suffering has made Him the ultimate source to whom we can turn for understanding. Pg 69
23. T F Bracing ourselves against emotional pain without learning to receive the support of the only One who has mastered it can only produce bitter fruit. Pg 73
24. T F Though sinless in Himself, Jesus suffered the presence of sin around him. Pg 85
25. T F Without Jesus, suffering can grind people down until they're reduced to emotional pulp; forced to surrender or driven to nervous exhaustion or breakdown. Pg 90
26. T F Jesus' blood is not calling for justice to be done; rather that it is declaring that justice has been accomplished. Pg 121
27. T F In the case of our freedom from sin, Christ knew He would have to shed His blood and give His life. It was the only way the ransom could be paid and the full transaction of our rescue accomplished. Pg 136
28. T F Jesus was the ransom paid for man's redemption. His blood was the price paid to recover mankind – the property seized from God's hand. Pg 137
29. T F Christ's blood penetrates all history. No longer does anyone need to live beneath sin's guilt and condemnation. Pg 156
